HEAD AND BE CONVINCED.
Those numerous readers of "The Garden of Allah" should not fail to attend the Belasco this week, where a film version is unfolded with all the splendor of the East.

For such a story, the legitimate stage can never hope to rival the screen. The familiar drama of the world-weary woman and the escaped Trappist monk is visualized with a verity which few can question. The rich, tropical garden and the undulating wastes of the desert are equally convincing in atmosphere, while the seeming life of the Algerian streets, the quiet, stately, dancing girls of the theater, caravans setting out across the sands, attacks of the sandstorm on the night of Domin's wedding, are things which only the genius of the camera man can reproduce. In "The Garden of Allah" he has done some of his best work.

Thousands of players are responsible for the matchless pageant of the Sahara.—Post, July 24th.

Doffs Army Duds To Don Uniform of Annapolis Cadet

ANNAPOLIS, July 25.—To take off the uniform of a private in the United States army and immediately shift into the naval uniform of a midshipman was the experience of James A. Anderson, of Utah, who was sworn in as a "middy" at the Naval Academy this morning.

Anderson, strong and husky, had started out to "do his bit" by entering the army, though his natural inclination was for the naval service.

After his determination to enter some branch of the service had led him to his enlistment in the army, Senator Smoot gave him the designation to take the recent examination for entrance to the academy. He passed mental and physical tests with flying colors and today attained the goal of his immediate ambition.

The swearing in of Anderson and several other youths this morning brought the total membership of the new fourth class up to 577. It is hoped to make the class reach 800.

'MARRYING PARSON,' JAILED FOR FREE LOVE

Performs Ceremonies for Others, But Omits His Own.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., July 25.—Known as the world's greatest "marrying parson," with a record of 3,047 ceremonies, the Rev. Henry Hill neglected to avail himself of the formality of a marriage with Maggie Adkins when he chose her for a mate, and as a result is in jail here. The woman, in a signed statement given the police, said she and Hill had been living together some time. She said neither of them considered a ceremony necessary.

The police say Hill admitted he had been living with Maggie Adkins and said that as soon as he could procure a divorce from his present wife he would marry Miss Adkins. He pleaded extenuating circumstances, saying he needed some one to care for him.

Hill's stamping ground has been the court house, where he could be seen daily approaching couples as they left the county clerk's office with marriage licenses. Through the inducement of cut rates for his services, Hill did a big business. He claims the world's record for performing marriages in fifty seconds.

LANGHORNE BEAUTIES TO GET DAD'S ESTATE

RICHMOND, Va., July 25.—C. D. Langhorne, of Greenwood, Albemarle county, Va., father of the famous "Langhorne sisters," has filed a deed of conveyance in the Chancery court here in which the estate, valued at more than a million dollars, is placed with a trust company to be administered according to the provisions of the deed.

During his life, Mr. Langhorne will receive the income from the estate, but after his death the property will be disposed of as follows: Genevieve Peyton Langhorne, widow of Harry Langhorne, is to receive the income from $40,000, or an annuity of $1,200 for life.

Irene Langhorne Gibson, wife of Charles Dana Gibson, is to receive one-seventieth of the estate for her lifetime, the property passing to her children. Nancy Astor, Phyllis Brooks, and Nora Phelps, all daughters, receive one-seventh, under similar terms. William Henry Langhorne is to receive one-seventh, Ellisha Kean Langhorne is to receive one-ninth. Another one-ninth goes to C. D. L. Perkins, Nancy K. Perkins, and Alice M. Perkins, deceased daughter. In the event of the death of any of the beneficiaries their property is to be turned into the body of the estate.

MISS FOSTER'S SANITY AGAIN COURT ISSUE

A second hearing before a jury to inquire into the sanity of Alice Foster, under observation at the Government Hospital for the Insane, will be held Tuesday by order of Chief Justice Stanford, of the District Supreme Court.

The case was called today on a petition for a writ of habeas corpus, filed by Mrs. Caroline H. Foster, who alleges her daughter is being held without warrant of law.

would stop that embarrassing itching!

That itching, burning skin-trouble which keeps you scratching and digging, is a source of disgust to others, as well as of torment to you. Why don't you get rid of it by using Resinol Ointment? Physicians have prescribed it for over 20 years. In most cases, it stops itching instantly and heals eruptions promptly. It is very easy and economical to use.

Sold by all druggists. For sample form, write to Dept. 6-N, Resinol, Baltimore, Md.
